

FYP Selection Post-talk Evaluation

Project selection should be bidirectional. While a supervisor has every right to determine the capability of a student, a student has the equal right to assess the project and the supervisor. This form is for the latter.

Tip: do some research before each meeting. Write things you know about the project on the back of this paper.

1. Project title: _____

2. What is the expected end result of this project?

---

---

---

3. What components does this project have?

---

---

---

4. What will be the biggest challenge in this project?

---

---

---

5. Is knowledge in a specific domain required? If so, what are they?

---

---

---

6. Any additional comment?
